It is also not organized chronologically because when we are behind the wheel, things don't happen in logical order; the situations and circumstances do dictate. The author has a bachelor's degree in education. He has been a North American driver for almost fifty years, most of which were in Cold Alberta, Canada, where winter could last for six months. You guessed it--lots of traffic accidents. Thus, the knowledge of defensive driving was a must. We must not forget that other drivers are our friends we haven't met. Why don't we help them and, in the process, help ourselves too? In an accident, regardless of who is at fault, we'll still suffer the same consequences. It takes only a second or two to help versus days or months recuperating. Some drivers make this statement, "whatever I do, if other drivers make a mistake what can I do?" Drivers that have this kind of reasoning forget that to be safe, one does not only drive their vehicle, follow traffic rules, but help other driver if they make a mistake.
