A Social Accounting Matrix (SAM) is a representation of an economy that shows the circular flow of all transfers and real transactions between sectors and institutions. The SAM, which is a square matrix, describes the flows of incomes from activities, taking the form of factor remunerations, that are consequently received by the households for consumption on goods and services. The accounts in the SAM are the production activities, commodities, institutions, and factors of production. According to data availability, the production activities can be further disaggregated to include more detailed information on sub-sectoral or regional production. Similarly, the factors of production could be differentiated by the level of skills or the location of employment. Households can be disaggregated by income quintiles or by rural and urban residence. The purpose of this paper is used to document the different steps followed to construct the 2010/11 Social Accounting Matrix for Ethiopia. The SAM is an extension of the Standard Nexus Structure. It consists of 63 activity sectors, 67 commodity sectors, three types of factors of production: labor (rural and urban disaggregated by level of education), land, and capital (disaggregated by crops, livestock, mining and other sectors). The household sector is divided spatially into urban and rural households. Rural households are further disaggregated into households that earn crop and/or livestock incomes (i.e., farm households) and those that do not earn incomes from either source (i.e., nonfarm households). Households are further disaggregated into per capita expenditure quintiles. This SAM allows analyzing issues at the detailed level and to better understand the potential impacts of policy changes for both better off and more vulnerable households. This volume explores the opportunities and challenges facing the accounting profession in an increasingly globalized business and financial reporting environment. It looks back at past experiences of the profession in attempting to meet its public interest obligation. It examines the role and responsibilities of accounting to society including regulatory requirements, increased emphasis on corporate social responsibility, accounting fraud and whistle-blowing implications, internationalization of public interest obligations, and providing the education needed to be successful. The book incorporates an ethical dimension in making these assessments. Its focus is a conceptual, theoretical one drawing on classical philosophy, the sociology of professions, economic theory, and the public interest dimension of accountants as professionals. The authors of papers are long-time contributors to the annual symposium on Research in Accounting Ethics sponsored by the Public Interest Section of the AAA. CCH Accounting for Income Taxes provides guidance on the application of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification Topic 740, Income Taxes. It also addresses income tax-related paragraphs in certain other Codification topics, including Topic 805, Business Combinations, and Topic 980, Regulated Operations. This publication presents the author's interpretation on areas that have not been specifically addressed by the Codification or that require further explanation. The analysis in this publication is based on discussions with the staffs of the FASB and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), combined with lessons learned from leading accounting practitioners. Appendix I includes a series of interpretations of income tax-related paragraphs that are located in other topics in the Codification. Appendix II, "Index of Accounting Literature Cited," includes cross-references to the interpretations that either refer to or incorporate the pre-Codification authoritative pronouncement or interpretive literature, in whole or in part, that was not codified by the FASB into its Codification. The FASB decided to exclude nonessential material, such as redundant summaries of existing standards, historical content, discussions of previous practice, summaries of constituent feedback, and similar content." However, we believe such information may be useful to readers of this publication. Appendix III contains recent examples reflecting how various U.S. public entities have disclosed the information required by Topic 740. The 2014 Laos Social Accounting Matrix (SAM) follows IFPRI's Standard Nexus SAM approach, by focusing on consistency, comparability, and transparency of data. The Nexus SAMs available on IFPRI's website separates domestic production into 42 activities. Factors are disaggregated into labor, agricultural land, and capital, with labor further disaggregated across three education-based categories. The household account is divided into 10 representative household groups: Rural and urban households across per capita consumption quintiles. Nexus SAMs support the improvement of model-based research and policy analysis in developing countries and allow for more robust cross-country comparisons of national economic structures, especially agriculture-food systems. Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2014 im Fachbereich BWL - Rechnungswesen, Bilanzierung, Steuern, Note: 1,5, Frankfurt School of Finance & Management, Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: Ziel der vorliegenden Arbeit ist es, eine kritische Würdigung des kürzlich veröffentlichten Discussion Papers DP/2014/1 „Accounting for Dynamic Risk Management: a Portfolio Revaluation Approach to Macro Hedging“ vorzunehmen. Die Arbeit fokussiert sich primär auf die Auswirkungen für den Bankenbereich hinsichtlich der Steuerung von Zinsrisiken. Das International Accounting Standard Board (IASB) hat am 24. Juli 2014 die finale Fassung von IFRS 9 veröffentlicht und den 1. Januar 2018 als verpflichtenden Erstanwendungstermin bekanntgegeben. Die Vorschrift ersetzt den bisher gültigen und aufgrund seiner Komplexität viel kritisierten IAS 39 im Rahmen des dreistufigen IAS 39 Replacement Projects. Die ursprüngliche Absicht des IASB auch Neuregelungen für offene Portfolien im Rahmen von Phase 3 „Hedge Accounting“ in IFRS 9 aufzunehmen, wurde im Mai 2012 aus dem Projekt ausgeklammert und in ein eigenes Sonderprojekt mit längerer Entwicklungsdauer überführt. Da IFRS 9 keine spezifischen Regelungen zur Bilanzierung von Sicherungsbeziehungen auf Macro-Ebene enthält (macro hedge accounting), soll ein speziell für Macro Hedges entwickeltes Bilanzierungsmodell in einem gesonderten Standard veröffentlicht werden. Nachdem in Kapitel 1 die Problemstellung und Zielsetzung konkretisiert und erläutert wird, beinhaltet Kapitel 2 eine Einführung in die Grundlagen und Hintergründe des Diskussionspapiers. Zunächst wird der Zusammenhang zwischen Accounting und Risikomanagement betrachtet. Es folgt eine Darstellung der bisherigen Regelungen zur Absicherung von Zinsrisiken auf Portfolioebene und die wichtigsten Kritikpunkte. Kapitel 3 befasst sich mit der Darstellung und kritischen Würdigung der wesentlichen Aspekte des Discussion Papers. Zunächst wird die Zielsetzung des dynamischen Risikomanagements erläutert, im Anschluss folgen eine Diskussion über die Zusammensetzung der gesteuerten Portfolien sowie über die Funktionsweise und Abbildung des Portfolio Revaluation Approach (PRA). Darauf aufbauend werden in Kapitel 4 die Ausweisalternativen dargestellt. Kapitel 5 schließt mit einer Zusammenfassung der wesentlichen Ergebnisse der Arbeit.
